

Mongolian B.B.Q

Custom Stir Fry

Mongolian B.B.Q is a stir fried dish that was developed in Taiwan. The grill style cooking of Mongolian B.B.Q derives from the Japanese-style teppanyaki which means "grilled on an iron plate". The term "Mongolian" is in reference to the way Mongolian warriors gathered meat and vegetables to grill over their shields on an open fire. Mongolian B.B.Q allows you to create your own "stir fry" from a choice of meats, fresh veggies and sauces. Your creation is then cooked before your eyes at the grill.

Begin your Mongolian B.B.Q experience with a delicious bowl of soup. Next, your server will bring you a bowl to create your custom stir fry using the fresh ingredients at the buffet. After creating your bowl, take it to the cook station for grilling. Once your stir fry is grilled to perfection, take it to your table and enjoy! When you are ready to create another stir fry bowl. Simply let your server know and they will bring you a clean bowl. When done your server will bring a little dessert for the finishing touch to your Mongolian B.B.Q experience.
